HI CHATTER

 OUR CORRESPONDENT

After running up scores that looked like the government debt for the first part of the season, E. C. H. S. and Sutter Creek really got down to business on Tuesday, with the result that the Cougars won out, 4 to 1, after a real ball game.

The date for playoffs in the Mother Lode League has not been definitely set, since there is a three-way tie in the southern division, but we assure you that if our boys play the kind of ball they did with Sutter, we'll send the opposition on their way home without the championship.

Lo, the day is now at hand! Having spent weeks of preparation, the tennis team is at last going to the Mother Lode League Northern Division Championships, at Sutter Creek, to defend the mixed doubles and boys' singles crowns, and, perhaps, to bring home new laurels. Those slated to represent their dear old Alma mater are: boys' singles, Wally Meyers; boys' doubles, Dan Walter and Jerry Davis; mixed doubles, Charles Irish and Barbara Long; girls' doubles, Mary Jean Newman and Edith Young; girls' singles, undecided as yet.

Student Election
 Well, the campaign is over, the victors are going around with their heads in the clouds, and the vanquished are seeking office in the Boys' Senate or Girls' League. Ballots were cast on Monday morning, and the following new student body officers were elected: President, Jas. Holt; vice president, Ken Collins; secretary, Alberta Dugan; commissioner of entertainment, Edith Thomsen; commissioner of publicity, Bill Dillinger. It is hoped that this year's officers will do their jobs as well as last year's did.

Skating Favored
 An amendment to the constitution was passed in student body on last Thursday, authorizing an award for participation in skating.

Public Speaking
 Mr. Hook, of Bank of America, presented awards in a Public Speaking contest sponsored by the Bank of America to June Fry, Sylvia Johnson and Elizabeth Wilder. He then presented an honor award, a gold medal, and $5 to Bruce Anderson, winner of the contest.

Another of our public speaking enthusiasts gained fame a few days ago, when Bob Woodward won the district contest at Roseville, and was advanced to the district finals at Redding.

Baseball Dance
 Don't forget the baseball dance on Friday night. If it takes after the team, it's bound to be good!

Schools Week
 Hurry, hurry, hurry! Your last and only opportunity to see the greatest show on Earth! The physics class has its usual quota of spark-making gadgets, queer machinery, and intriguing demonstrations, the chemistry department is planning to cook up some weird concoctions especially for you; the languages will serenade you in a half dozen different tongues, the band will play in scores of off key; the gym class—girls, of course—will dance the dramatics into Franciscan Friars with a few deft touches of the makeup brush, the math classes will juggle logs, sines, cosines, square roots, etc., and you might even be able to bum a handout from the home ec. department, who cooked the dinner for the Lions Club last Tuesday night. Yes sir, the Public Schools night is one occasion even the kids want to come to school. Remember, tonight's the night!

Snake Bite And Treatment Film Shown For Scouts

Members of Merle Thomas' Boy Scout troop No. 57, had snakey feelings Tuesday night following their regular meeting in the Boy Scout lodge.

Educational Advisor Lloyd L. Vye of the Mosquito CCC Camp had shown the Scouts a filmstrip on the "Poisonous Snakes of the U. S. and Approved Snake Bite Treatment."

The pictures depicted the Western Diamond Back, and the Pacific Rattlesnake, both common to this area and showed in detail the approved rattlesnake bite treatment.

Communists Claimed On U. S. Merchant Ships

WASHINGTON, (UP)—Fred M. Howe, a marine radio operator, told the Dies committee that the communist party had members aboard American merchant ships so that "in time of war they could help establish a Soviet system here." Howe said the big passenger liners Washington and Manhattan were among those on which communist party members were employed.

NORWAY BATTLE NEARS CLIMAX

Allied, Nazi Columns Maneuver For Advantage Seeking Dominant Points

STOCKHOLM, (UP)—Two German columns, pounding northward through central Norway, were reported today to have smashed Allied defenses northeast of Lillehammer and at Roeros, in a drive toward the west coast port of Trondheim.

Air Raid Warning
 BERLIN, (UP)—The official news agency today threatened that Germany would retaliate with "bomb for bomb" if the British continue what Germans alleged was the bombing of towns which are without military importance. (In London, the air ministry officially denied that the British had bombed any open towns or non-military objectives.)

Report "Pressure"
 LONDON, (UP)—German "pressure" in central Norway has forced Allied forces to fall back from the Lillehammer sector, a war office communiqué said today, after severe fighting had been reported between British and German troops to the north of Trondheim.

17,000 Men Lost
 PARIS, (UP)—The newspaper Petit Parisien claimed today that Germany had lost 17,000 men so far in its Norwegian campaign, of whom 14,000 were drowned when transport ships were sunk. These losses do not include the crews of the lost ships, the newspaper said.

By UNITED PRESS
 German and Allied expeditionary forces struggled for advantage today on two important fronts dominating central Norway.

In the Trondheim sector, which is the first big Nazi occupied port to be attacked by the British, fighting continued north of the city in the Steinkjer sector.

In the Dombas-Lillehammer sector, dominating the vital communications lines of central Norway, Nazi motorized forces were reported to have slashed their way northward to Roeros.

Many military experts in Stockholm and London believed that the success or failure of the Allied expeditionary forces in opposing the northward thrusts of the Nazis in the central sector might decide the outcome of the battle for Norway.

Mothers' Day Plans Told

Rescue's Annual Picnic Will Pay Respects To Pioneers In County

The Mothers' Day (May 12th) picnic at Rescue this year will pay special respects to the pioneer women of the county, it was revealed Thursday by Dr. L. J. Anderson, who will be master of ceremonies for the formal exercises during the morning.

Dr. Anderson said he has been advised by the program committee that Miss Margaret Kelly, of Kelsey, will give the Mothers' Day address and that a number of other speakers of distinction have been invited to participate in the program.

Formal announcement of the speakers is being deferred until next week, pending receipt of word of acceptance from all of those who have been invited to participate in the program.

The county high school band and the Rescue 4-H Club orchestra will have a part in the exercises and in the afternoon there will be the usual sports program.

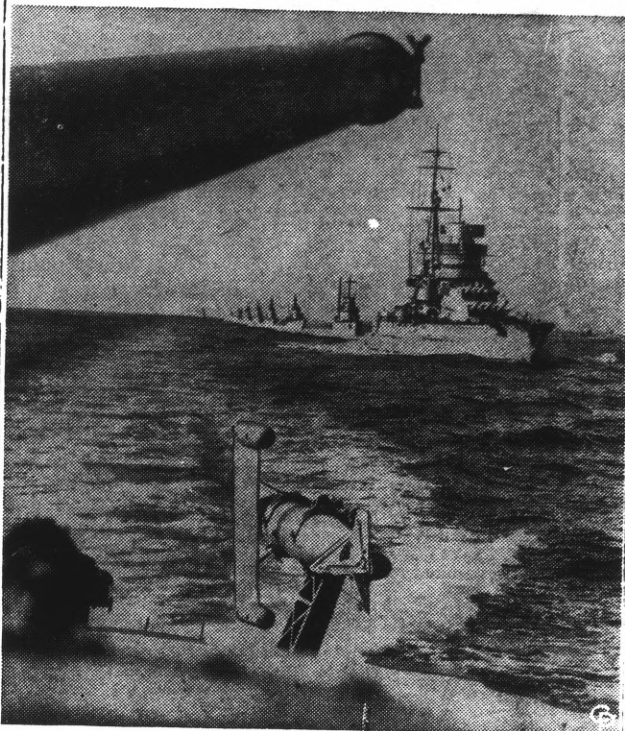

This phase of the observance is being arranged under the direction of Harry Cridge and Kenneth W. McCoy, county school superintendent assisted by E. J. Fitzgerald, of Diamond Springs who has charge of the horse shoe tossing competition.

This, the tenth annual Mothers' Day picnic at Rescue, is arranged under the joint sponsorship of the United Rescue Grange and the Rescue Fair Center.

Georgetown Firemen To Dance Saturday Night

Georgetown Volunteer Fire Department members will hold their thirteenth annual dance on Saturday night at the I. O. O. F. hall in Georgetown. It is reported that there will be a number of the friends of the community of Georgetown, who will go from the county seat to attend.

Italian Fleet on the Move

Mussolini is reported to have concentrated the Italian fleet in the Dodecanese Islands pointing to the Dardanelles entrance. The move would tend to restrain the Allies and Turkey from moving against Germany in the Balkans. Above photo, made from the battleship Cavore, shows the Cavore leading a line of Italy's heavy cruisers through the Mediterranean.

NAZI NAVY CHIEF DIS-CREDITS ALLIED SCANDINAVIA BLOCKADE

War Materials Continue To Flow From Germany To Norwegian Harbors; Sinking Or Beaching Of Warships, Cruiser, Bremen Are Denied

NEW YORK, (Copyright 1940, by United Press)—There is an increasing flow of war materials from Germany to Norwegian harbors, Grand Admiral Erich Raeder said today in a statement cabled to the United Press from Berlin. Admiral Raeder cited this as refutation of any assertion that the western powers severed sea connections between Norway and Germany. Raeder's statement, answering a series of questions from the United Press, follows:

By GRAND ADMIRAL ERICH RAEDER
 Commander-in-Chief of the German Navy

BERLIN, (UP)—Firstly, the mined areas in the North Sea and the Baltic Sea, announced by the British Admiralty, I regard as indicative of a desire to create in neutral countries a strong impression of British-French activity to counter the successful German action in Scandinavia.

I consider the laying of such extensive mine fields in waters which the British and French fleets do not control to be an extraordinary difficult matter which would require many months. There is no particular success connected with this announcement because the intended mine field cannot be effectuated, in view of strong German counter-measures against all types of mine layers.

Secondly, the steadily increasing flow of troops and war materials from Germany to Norwegian harbors is the best refutation of the assertion that the western powers have severed sea connections between Norway and Germany.

Thirdly, German warship losses as alleged by the Allies are not in accordance with the facts. The reported sinking or beaching of the battleships Gneisenau and Scharnhorst as well as the cruiser Leutze is completely invented. The same holds for the alleged sinking of the

NORMA BLOOM, G. FORRSBECK REPORTED TO WED IN NEVADA THURSDAY

Friends of Miss Norma Bloom and Gunnar Forrsbeck reported Thursday morning that the couple had left for Nevada points via Auburn, with plans to be married.

Miss Bloom, a graduate of the county high school and for some time past employed as a nurse at a Sacramento hospital, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bloom, of this city.

Mr. Forrsbeck is one of the active participants in the Placerville Ski Club and has distinguished himself and won laurels for the club in tournament competition. He is employed as a surveyor with the Michigan-Alaska Lumber Company at Camp Fourteen.

Although the couple have been friends for nine years, their engagement was revealed to intimate friends only last week. We are informed the couple will make their home at Camp Fourteen where a new cottage for them is nearing completion.

VEERKAMP VICE-CHAIRMAN FOR THREE-STATE PEAR BUREAU

HOOD RIVER, Ore.—Winter pear shippers and growers from the three Pacific Coast states met here last weekend, to review the past year's program and make plans for next season. The occasion was the annual meeting of the Oregon-Washington-California Pear Bureau.

E. R. Pooley of Hood River was re-elected president, this being the seventh consecutive time that Mr. Pooley has been chosen to fill this office.

The other officers, elected for the 1940-41 season, are B. A. Perham, Yakima, first vice-president; Raymond R. Reter, Medford, second vice-president; L. W. Veerkamp, Placerville, third vice-president; John Duckwall, Hood River, secretary; and Scott F. Altken, Hood River, treasurer.

In addition representatives on the board of trustees include A. A. Brock, Placerville.

DANCE FIRE DEATHS 198

Iron Bars On Windows Blamed For Trapping Merry-makers In Inferno

NATCHEZ, MISS. (UP)—Iron bars, placed over the windows of the Rhythm Club, Negro dance hall, to "keep out the spectators and dead-heads," were blamed today for most of the 198 deaths in Wednesday night's fire and panic.

The bars, reinforced by wooden lattice work, covered all but two of the 17 windows in the frame building, leaving only the one door and two windows as exits.

The fire broke out in Spanish moss festoons with which the building was decorated for a swing festival. It flashed through the place in 15 minutes, killing almost half the 500 dancers, who had become a screaming, stampeding mass. Estimates of the dead had ranged as high as 256 but Dr. Andrew Hedmg, head of the county health department, set the toll at 198 after conferring with Red Cross officials and police. Some of the 40 injured were expected to die.

Angling Season Opens May 30th

New Regulations Close Entire County Except Lake Tahoe To That Date

The fishing season in El Dorado County opens on May 30th and all waters except Lake Tahoe are closed until that date.

This is a departure from what fishermen have been accustomed to in other years, when certain waters of the county had been open on May 1st.

However, regulations established by the last Legislature formed a new district embracing the foothill region of El Dorado and adjoining counties, and the effect of that rule is that no fish may be taken legally in El Dorado County, except from Lake Tahoe, until May 30th.

When the season opens, Plum Creek, which has been closed for several seasons past, will be open to fishing this year.

The following lakes and streams of the county will be closed this year as indicated:

That section of the South Fork of the American River from the Chute Camp Dam, near the mouth of Slab Creek, to the mouth of Silver Creek.

Strawberry Creek from its junction with the South Fork of the American River to its head and all tributaries of the stream (including Cody Creek and Cody Lake).

The two Leland lakes, Alder, Aspen, Bryant and Sayles Creeks and all their tributaries; the creeks being tributaries to the South Fork of the American River.

Taylor, Trout and Clod Creeks and all their tributaries.

The Upper Truckee River from its mouth at Lake Tahoe to the Luther Pass Highway Bridge and all tributaries to this portion.

Lake of the Woods, closed from May 30th to June 30th, both dates inclusive, and from October 1st to October 31st, both dates inclusive.

Cup and Sauter Lakes, closed from May 30th to June 30th, inclusive, and from October 1st to October 31st, inclusive.

Loon, Pleasant, Bisbee, Mary, Solder, Winnifred, Buck Island and Rock Bound Lakes, closed from October 1st to October 31st.

BETROTHAL REVEALED AT SOCIAL FOLLOWING LODGE MEETING

Following the meeting of El Dorado Chapter No. 499, O. E. S., on Thursday evening of last week, at which Viola Merrick Harvey was initiated in membership, a surprise announcement was made of the engagement of Mary J. Cridge, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cridge, and Chauncey Justus Smith, Jr.

Members of the chapter gathered at tables beautifully decorated with tulips and other Spring flowers and a shower of "star" colors. Ribbons leading from the various places met in a star centerpiece which concealed the announcement was written.

Both of the young people attended local schools and are employed in the county.

Long Honored

A 14-foot, $50,000 statue is placed on the memorial over the grave of Huey Long on the lawn of the Louisiana state capitol in Baton Rouge. Contributions from followers of the late dictator were to pay for the memorial, but they totaled only $75 so Gov. Earl Long, his brother, had the legislature provide funds.

ANNUAL PICNIC ON MAY 4TH

School Music Festival In Forenoon; Sports Following Luncheon

The traditional "May Day" picnic of the county will be held this year on May 4, Saturday, at the county fair grounds and will present for the first time the pupils of the various county schools in a music festival which will be a major attraction of the morning program.

The increasing interest among pupils of the county schools in vocal as well as instrumental music, coupled with the growth of the school enrollment, has resulted during the past year in the appointment of a school music supervisor for the county, Mrs. Mildred M. Wiley, and it is under her direction that the music festival is being arranged.

Following luncheon, there will be a miscellaneous sports program.

Interest in the picnic as demonstrated at the recent regular meeting of the county Chamber of Commerce, resulted in a decision by that organization that in the coming year, 1941, the picnic should receive general sponsorship as a county-wide community event.

This thought was advanced, not for any purpose of criticizing the plans for the picnic this year, but rather with the thought in mind that the May Day picnic, as family get-together for the whole county, should be preserved, and that a program designed to create the greatest possible interest among adults and children alike would further that end.

The music festival program is being arranged to afford all schools of the county representation and the sports events will provide the opportunity for all "Young El Doradoans" to display their skill and ability in a wide variety of games and races.

Not the least of these will be the annual horse shoe tournament, for which E. J. Fitzgerald is chairman.

SOFTBALL ASSOCIATION MEETING CALLED FOR THURSDAY, MAY 2

The managers of prospective teams for the county softball league, which will start play on May 20th, have been advised by the league secretary, T. S. Marlor, that their teams must be registered by May 1st and their team rosters filed by May 15th.

A meeting of team managers and the league officials has been called for Thursday evening, May 2, at the P. G. & E. Company hall, at which further preparations for the start of the league play will be made.

Tentative plans for special festivities to mark the opening of the new season provide for a parade of all teams forming at the Druid monument and proceeding down Main Street and thence to Marcus P. Bennett, Jr., Memorial park, on the opening night.

SCHOOLS WEEK NEARS CLOSE

Native Sons' Grand Parlor Dedicates Two Buildings In Exercises Thursday

Public observance of the twenty-first annual California Public Schools Week in El Dorado County closes this (Thursday) evening with county-wide exercises at the high school auditorium, opening at 8 o'clock.

A feature of the program will be dedication by the Grand Officers of the Native Sons of the Golden West, led by Grand President Jesse H. Miller, of the two new units to the school building.

Grand President Miller and his staff officiated in similar exercises this afternoon at the Placerville Grammar School, dedicating the new unit of the school plant.

In addition to the dedication, there was a Public Schools Week program in the Grammar School auditorium in which pupils of the schools took part, with a talk concerning public schools by Lewis F. Byington, of San Francisco, past grand president of the Native Sons. The meeting was conducted by E. Ogden Hook, president of Placerville Parlor No. 9, of Native Sons, and followed a three-hour "open house" period during which numerous parents and friends of school children and patrons of the schools, inspected the school plant and viewed the classroom work of pupils which was displayed.

This evening at the high school, there will be an "open house" beginning at 6 o'clock and for a two-hour period the public will have the opportunity to inspect the enlarged school plant and view the classroom work of the pupils.

Formal exercises will open at eight o'clock in the auditorium.

Mr. Hook will preside at the program starting at eight o'clock in the school auditorium in which the school band and glee club will take part. Mr. Byington will speak and Robert Barker will sing. This will be followed by the formal dedication.

Sportsmen Rally For Dinner

Rod And Gun Club Meeting Friday Night To Attract Approximately 150

An attendance of nearly 150 sportsmen of El Dorado County and from Sacramento at the annual meeting of the Rod and Gun Club Friday night at Hotel Raffles, appeared probable Thursday noon.

Although the meeting is the annual gathering of the club, President A. H. Murray pointed out that a general invitation has been extended to fishermen and hunters to attend the dinner, and that many "kindred spirits" of the club members have accepted the invitation and will be provided with the opportunity to enroll in the club for the new year.

The program, which will follow the sea-food supper, will feature the showing of several reels of motion pictures of a hunting trip in the Canadian northwest. This picture was shown last year before the club and was received with such interest that it has been obtained for showing again this year.

Speakers will include Bryan Curtis, biologist for the state Division of Fish and Game; and Inspector E. J. Chappell, of the division's Sacramento district patrol.

Reports of President Murray and Secretary John A. Winkelman will tell of the club's work during the past year and the nominating committee will report, suggesting Leo Barrett for president, and Wallace M. Ripley for secretary for the new year. Nominations will then be opened and the annual election conducted.

3 "WHITE SPOTS" NOTED AS TAXES SHOW 3 PCT. DELINQUENCY

County Tax Collector W. F. Trustcott reported Thursday that the delinquency in county taxes is only three per cent.

Three school districts of the county have no tax delinquency. They are Carson Creek and Pigeon Creek and Wildwood. Wildwood district is made up almost entirely of utility owned property, the tax collector said.

CRIMSON WARNING

by RICHARD SALE

Bruce Kirby, young museum curator, is urgently summoned to his friend Emery Harding's home on Skeleton Island, off the coast of Maine. Jane Hall, girl detective attached to the New York police force, has also been summoned—to guard Harding's daughter Audrey. Harding recently bought a ruby from an old sea captain, Albert Santry, and has received a note threatening Audrey unless he hands over the ruby, which, according to the note, was stolen from a temple in the East Indies. Scarcely has Kirby arrived when one of the servants, Drumm, finds Santry dead on the beach. When Kirby, Harding, and Harding's physician, Dr. Straeter, rush down to the beach, they find a man bending over the body.

CHAPTER IV
AHEAD of them, in the moonlight, they could see the outline of a stooping man. Harding shouted. The man stood erect and peered towards them.

The girl gave a short, frightened cry at the sight of their macabre burden.

Harding grunted his relief. "It's only Castian."

Kirby knew Robert Castian. He was Harding's lawyer, and a close friend of the family.

"Hello, Emery," Castian said coolly, when the group reached him. "You've got a dead man here. I stumbled across him."

"Here," said Dr. Straeter. "Let me have a look at him. Has anyone a light of some kind?"

"I got a flashlight here, sir," said Drumm.

THEY picked up the corpse. Straeter at the head, Castian and Kirby each grasping a leg. Awkwardly, then, they moved off across the sand.

"Easy to the same path we came down," said Kirby.

Castian glanced at him queerly. "Why?"

"There may be footprints in the sand."

"Footprints!" Castian snorted. "You talk as if you thought it was murder!"

Kirby didn't answer. They crossed the lawn and went up the steps to the house.

"No noise," said Harding. "I don't want the others to know about this, yet. It might frighten the ladies."

He opened the door, and held it back. The three men carrying the body marched in after him.

"That'll do, Drumm," said Harding. "I'll call you from your quarters if we need you."

"Aye, sir," said Drumm, crestfallen. Drumm departed.

Harding closed the door. "Take him into the library. There's no one there."

"Righto," said Kirby.

BUT Harding was wrong. There were two people in the library—a young man and a girl. The girl gave a short, frightened cry at sight of the macabre burden.

"Good lord!" exclaimed Harding, in dismay.

"Good lord!" said the young man. "What's happened?"

"Take Audrey out of here, Frank," Harding said truculently. "I'll explain later. Take her out!"

"It's Captain Santry," Audrey whispered, her lips quivering.

"Come along, darling," said the young man firmly.

"Audrey," said Harding. "Your friend is here. Jane Hall. Upstairs."

"Jane Hall?" Audrey repeated blankly. "Oh—oh—yes."

The young man led her out and shut the door.

BY THIS time, the others had deposited the body on the sofa. Dr. Straeter had yanked off the seaman's jacket and was busy ripping open the shirt.

Kirby stood next to his host, watching the doctor.

"Your daughter's fiancé?" he asked absently.

"Eh?" Harding looked up. "Oh, you mean Frank. Yes—Frank Bitherbee. Nice young chap. But no money. Wants to marry her right away, but he couldn't support her a month."

Dr. Straeter looked up. "Mr. Kirby, will you come here a moment?"

Kirby moved across to the sofa. The doctor pointed to the dead man's chest.

"General condition of discoloration and swelling, but not a mark on the neck or chest."

"Hm," Kirby's eyes darted over the corpse. "His right leg, perhaps, Doctor. It seems particularly swollen."

"That's so. Perhaps you're right."

Dr. Straeter ripped up the trouser leg, exposing the shin. Instantly, the group gasped.

The flesh of the shin was a deep, ghastly purple. The leg was deeply swollen. And on the back of the leg, just above the ankle, there were two red dots—an inch apart.

Dr. Straeter's eyes met Kirby's. With an effort, Kirby pulled his gaze away, took another look at the two red dots, and then teetered on his heels, eyeing the ceiling.

350,000 PERSONS saw this booth at the seventh annual Outing Show, at Los Angeles, which closed a six-day run Sunday. The exhibit, in which El Dorado County Chamber of Commerce participated with the Sacramento Chamber of Commerce and the Lake Tahoe-Sierra Association, distributed 28,000 pieces of literature of which 7,000 concerned El Dorado County. Seeking "key words" as attractions for advertising, those in charge displayed a sign reading "Sacramento, Placerville, Lake Tahoe" over the exhibit and told the story of El Dorado County, the Sacramento Region, Lake Tahoe and the Mother Lode to visitors in the exhibit.

of the new school units by the Grand Officers of the Native Sons, led by Mr. Miller.

The observance of Public Schools week in the county has been marked by four programs this year. Exercises were held at Diamond Springs school on Monday evening, in which pupils of schools in the south and west sections of the county participated. The schools week address was by Frank Lindsay, of the offices of the state department of education. The trend of Mr. Lindsay's talk was to point out the mutual advantages of a closer relationship between the home and the school.

On Wednesday evening at Georgetown, Robert Ramsey, of the high school English department, was the speaker at a program in which the pupils of six schools of the vicinity participated at the I. O. O. F. Hall.

The county-wide Public Schools Week observance was arranged under the chairmanship of a committee including County Superintendent Kenneth W. McCoy, High School Principal Ben Larson, and Principal John H. Palmer, of Placerville Grammar School.

Diamond For Month Of April

Burger Knows Gems...

DIAMOND—April birthstone from "Adamas," meaning the invincible; hardest stone known, is pure in carbon, even anciently recognized its hardness for cutting other stones; usually found in imperfect octahedral shape, cleaves readily, has more brilliance than any other stone, cut with 58 facets—figured mathematically to bring out maximum of its extreme brilliance and rare "fire"—single high refraction easily identified; Diamond does not show in X-ray pictures.

Southern Cooking

Somehow the very mention of Southern cooking makes one's mouth water.

For generations southern women have held the exalted position of being "experts" in the art of cookery. Southern culinary specialists are legion. Some of those best remembered are: fried chicken, biscuits, corn bread, and shortening bread and spoon bread, not to mention Lady Baltimore cake, pecan pie, ambrosia and literally hundreds of other delicious things.

Having migrated from one of those beloved southern states, I must confess that all the things they say about "Dixie" are true. Many times I find myself longing to return to my home state, Texas—where Hospitality is spelled with a capital, and once more enjoy the scenes of my childhood. Try some of these old southern favorites and for "land sakes chile, yo" might like 'em.

Pecan Pie

1 cup pecans (rolled once), 1 cup brown sugar, 1 cup dark Karo syrup, 2 eggs, small piece of butter. Stir all together. Pour in an uncooked crust. Bake slowly 45 minutes.

Ambrosia

1 fresh or 1 can crushed pineapple, 4 large oranges sliced, 1 cup shredded coconut (fresh if possible) using the milk, 1 cup sugar, 1 1/2 teaspoons lemon juice. Place layer of sliced oranges in the bottom of a large bowl. Sprinkle with sugar and coconut, place on layer of shredded pineapple, alternate until bowl is full or until all ingredients are used, pour lemon juice, 1/2 cup orange juice and fresh coconut milk. Sprinkle heavy layer of coconut on top. Let set in refrigerator for at least four hours before serving.

Southern Fried Apples

Core but do not peel, medium-sized Jonathan or Spitzenberg apples. Slice 1/2 inch thick to make perfect ring. Heat 1-3 cup butter in thick walled skillet, aluminum, chrome or steel—until light brown. Mix 2-3 cup sugar with one tablespoon ground cinnamon and dash of salt. Cover the apples with 1/2 the mixture. After 5 minutes turn the slices with pancake turner to avoid breaking. Cover with remaining sugar mixture. Fry over low flame until almost transparent. If too well done, they break easily. Serve hot.

Mammy's Fried Pies

Stew dried apples, peaches or apricots. Drain off all the juice, mash well and sweeten. Roll puff paste one-eighth inch thick and cut circles three inches in diameter. On one of the circles place a spoonful of filling, having a clear margin of piecrust. Moisten this edge all around, place another circle on top and press the edges firmly together. Fry in deep fat like doughnuts or saute' with a little fat in a hot iron frying-pan, turning the pie so that it will brown on both sides. These are delicious with fillings of mince meat, or any thick jam or preserve.

Corn-Meal Griddle-Cakes

1 cup corn-meal, 1 tablespoon sugar, 1 teaspoon salt, 2 cups boiling water, 1 1/2 cups milk, 2 cups flour, 4 teaspoons baking powder, 2 eggs. Put the meal, sugar, and salt into a mixing bowl, and pour over them boiling water. Let stand until meal swells, then add the cold milk. When the mixture is quite cool, stir in the flour and baking powder, mixing well. Lastly add the eggs well beaten. Bake on a hot griddle—in bacon grease. The cakes should be well browned and thoroughly cooked; they need a little longer cooking than wheat cakes.

Southern Spoon Bread

1/4 cup of fat and cracklings from pork, or chicken fat, 3 cups boiling water, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1 cup corn meal, 2 eggs. Add fat and cracklings to the water, and when boiling sprinkle in the salt and corn meal. Stir constantly. Cook in a double boiler one hour, cool and add the well beaten eggs. Drop by big spoons full onto well greased baking dish and bake in moderate oven 3-4 of an hour.

Southern Beaten Biscuit

2 cups flour, 1 teaspoon salt, 1-3 cup shortening, milk and water. Sift the flour with the salt. With the tips of the fingers work in the shortening and moisten to a stiff dough with equal quantities of milk and water mixed. Place on floured board and beat with rolling pin for at least one-half hour, folding the dough every few minutes. Roll to one-third inch thick, shape with a biscuit cutter about two inches in diameter, prick with fork and place on greased baking-sheet. Bake twenty minutes in hot oven at 425 degrees. When done they should be light, of even grain, and should crack at the edges like crackers.

Mustard Greens

About three bunches of mustard greens are enough for a mess for a family of six. All greens should be thoroughly washed through several waters. The addition of a hand full of salt in the last water will free them from all insects or worms. Let the greens stand in cold water for at least one half hour. Put a 1/2 pound piece of medium fat breakfast bacon or dry salt pork in a pot of boiling water, salt to taste, black pepper. Let boil for about fifteen minutes. Add the mustard greens and when well covered with water after they have cooked down. The secret of good greens is in the cooking time, they should cook at least two hours, slowly. When ready to serve, pour the liquid (or pot likker) off, cut the greens up fine and place the bacon across the top. Serve the pot likker as you would soup.

Fashion Tips

'Leap Year Red' now isn't that just too intriguing. Spring colors strike a patriotic note this Spring, with plenty of accent on the red, white, and blue. It's good news too, for the combination is mighty handy coming to both young and old, should I say past forty?

Again big, shiny brass buttons are the thing—with stars or eagles, or stag-heads. You will have braid trimming, and swanky epaulettes on your new jackets. You will find cords, tassels and crossgrain ribbon cockades on hats. All these little touches will remind you of those cute, high-stepping girls who lead the parades and get their pictures in the papers.

Speaking of hats—don't forget the veil for after all a hat this season is not a hat without a veil. It may be worn with a sassy Victorian bonnet tied under the chin or draped over the carwheel of the face. Bretons. Feathers too are placed well forward on both the sides and crown of small toques, which suggests the forward sweep of a bird in flight, and with a fairy-like maline veil reminds one of Spring clouds frisking over the great expanse of blue. However your best Spring outfit, whether in black, navy, or a pastel shade, will have plenty of dash when topped off like this.

137 Are Indicted By Detroit Grand Jury

DETROIT (UP)—John Roxborough, co-manager of Heavyweight Champion Joe Louis, former Mayor Richard Reading, 89 members of the Detroit police department and 46 others were indicted by a one-man grand jury on policy conspiracy charges.

A DEMONSTRATION OF COMMUNITY CO-OPERATION greeted baseball fans Sunday when they met at Marcus P. Bennett, Jr. Memorial Park to see the Bartletts in their first home game of the year. The demonstration was the comfort of having a lattice sun-shade over the bleachers. The lattice was contributed by the Michigan-California Lumber Company and the Beach Box Factory; structural lumber was contributed by Blair Brothers and The Diamond Match, and hardware was contributed by the Sportsman's Shop. The Rupley Brothers hauled the lattice given by the Michigan-California Lumber Company. Members of the local carpenters' union with Paul Smith as chairman, contributed the labor. In the picture are Homer Beach, Louis Beach, Frank Eskew, Clarence Clifton, Chester Carver, Ray Carver, Carl Gibson, Grover Cearley and Gene Donnell, who thank George Yeager for his contribution of refreshments to the success of the project.—A Democrat Photo.

COUNTY YOUTH LION WINNER

Bob Woodward Competes In Public Speaking At Redding Conference

El Dorado County's chief interest in the annual Spring conference of Lions of Northern California and Nevada, to be held at Redding on Saturday and Sunday, centers in the chances of Bob Woodward's success in the Lions public speaking contest for high school students.

Woodward, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Woodward, of Placerville, and winner in local eliminations in the state-wide contest, won a district championship Monday night at Roseville, speaking in competition with entries from nine other Lions Clubs.

Saturday evening, at the Lions conference at Redding, he will compete against other district winners from Northern California and Nevada at a meeting which will be conducted under the chairmanship of Lion James R. Johnson, of Auburn.

Lion Secretary Arthur Mart, of Placerville, is also secretary for the district conference and he with Lion President and Mrs. L. R. Armes will attend the convention. It is reported that some other members of the Placerville club also will attend the meeting, attracted by the opportunity to visit Shasta dam as part of the convention program.
